

Making Life Better

with Jesus, in Community, on Purpose

Greetings –

THIS SUNDAY, June 12, I will delve into the topic of “Handling the Impossible.”

The impossible intrigues us and intimidates us. We use the word “change” a lot, mostly reflecting minor or temporary adjustments, i.e., “rearranging the deck chairs.” But there are times in our lives when we not only seek change, we seek transformation--and transformation is hard. It takes us from something steady, somewhat mundane and predictable to a whole new level of life. It is hard, some would say impossible, for us to change ourselves, but it is easy for God to transform us. Listen with me once more to this important declaration of the Gospel. Check out Ezekiel 37 before you come.

An important announcement for families with 4th through 6th graders. Starting this Sunday we are offering a short-term, summer course on “Exploring and Letting the Bible Come Alive.” The focus will be on becoming familiar with its stories, promises and precepts, especially discovering their application to lives right here, right now. Jan Taylor will be leading this pullout group during our 9:30 worship.

- ▶ Men’s Breakfast Fellowship – this Saturday, June 11, 8:30 a.m. @ FCC’s Fellowship Hall.
- ▶ New Women’s Summer Bible Study – each Thursday @ 10:00 a.m. in the Parlor.

DON’T FORGET !!

We have begun our Summer Worship Schedule with ONE Worship Service at 9:30 a.m.

Our regular schedule will resume in September.

Be sure and turn in your Pastor Search Survey this Sunday. Your cooperation will be a great assist to our Senior Minister Search Team as they complete our Congregational Profile that will be viewed by prospective candidates.

Until we gather, keep listening for God’s voice. – Blessings!
