with Jesus, in Community, on Purpose

Greetings –

THIS SUNDAY, June 5, I will delve into the topic of “Handling Life’s Detours – Discovering God’s Will in the Unexpected.” All of us make plans, some minor, some significant. How do we react, what do we do, when those plans are turned upside down? Join me for this sermon & worship.

DON’T FORGET !!

We have begun our Summer Worship Schedule with ONE Worship Service at 9:30 a.m.
Our regular schedule will resume in September.

If you haven’t, be sure and pick up your Pastor Search Survey this Sunday. Your cooperation will be a great assist to our Senior Minister Search Team as they complete our Congregational Profile that will be viewed by prospective candidates. We need your response by Sunday, June 12. If you need more than one copy, please see the church office.

As we move past Memorial Day’s observances: Consider the messages on Two Tombstones. One is the resting place of Mel Blanc, the famous voice of countless characters in Looney Tunes cartoons. In accordance with Mel’s instructions, his friends inscribed his epitaph with the words that he had said to end hundreds of cartoons – “that’s all folks!”

The other tombstone is described by Philip Yancey in one of his articles: It marks the grave of a friend’s grandmother, buried under huge, old, oak tree in an Episcopal church cemetery in rural Louisiana. In accordance with the grandmother’s instructions – ONE word is inscribed on the tombstone: Waiting

Jesus’ Life and Resurrection literally changed the way we approach death.

Until we gather, keep listening for God’s whispers – Blessings!
