Greetings –

This Sunday we have another sermon from the series “The Stories He Told.” We will unpack one of the most famous of Jesus’ stories found in Luke 10:25-37. Its common title is “The Good Samaritan,” but for Sunday it will be “The Other Element of Your Salvation.” If you have ever questioned the adequacy of your faith’s response to God, then you will want to hear what Jesus said and the story that He told. You’ll come away with three axioms that will stick with you.

➔ This Sunday one of our youth, Amy Haining, will share the story of her summer mission trip. Amy’s adventure came about as she joined Fort Collins youth from Heart of the Rockies Church. Lives are shaped by such special opportunities. Come, listen, and rejoice.

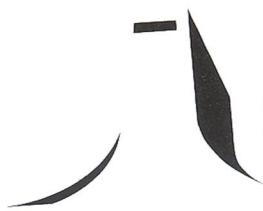

When you arrive Sunday you’ll notice that our hallways, offices, parlor, and fellowship hall’s carpets have been cleaned. No more ugly stains (yeah!) This blessing was made possible by the generosity of one of our families. Thanks also to the people who helped move all our furniture around to accommodate the process.

We have a wonderful group of servants at FCC. So many do so many large and small things behind the scenes to enhance our ministry. Your “elbow grease,” extended hours, and fervent prayers are blessings. I am proud to serve with you.

UPCOMING: Sunday, August 28 Our end-of-the-summer Worship in Action Service Day. For just a few hours we will disperse into peoples’ homes and lives to give encouragement and help. There will be several meaningful ways to participate, so ALL of us can engage. Join us!

Sunday, Sept. 11 Our end-of-the-summer Open House and Picnic will take place immediately after our 10:30 Worship Service. This will be a MAJOR OUTREACH as we make a purposeful effort to CONNECT with our neighbors and unchurched family and friends. Please commit to be present and serve.

Blessings!
