

Making Life Better

with Jesus, in Community, on Purpose

Greetings –

This Sunday I'll continue the series Moving Forward – Sunday's emphasis: TOGETHER, in Community. In a sense this message will bring us full circle. My first words to you were my three guiding principles: Everyone Matters to God; Grace Happens Here; Together, We Can! Together with God, together with each other. Diverse and united. There are no Lone Ranger disciples. We are privileged to be part of a very unique team. Join me Sunday as we celebrate our identity.

I have learned a few details regarding the status of our Senior Minister Search. I'm excited for FCC. The Search Team has prayerfully sought God's leading. The potential candidate has great promise. Please continue to uphold our Search Team and the candidate.

Church Chairman Tom Rainbolt, in conjunction with the Regional office, is working to secure a short term interim. If they are available either of the candidates that have been mentioned will be a blessing to FCC. Pray for that as well.

This will be the last of my weekly enewsletters to you. Each week as I've written to you I've envisioned both individual and group faces. My desire has always been for the Lord to bless you. Thank you for privilege of serving with you. We'll be back periodically visiting our family in Fort Collins. It will be our delight to see you on those occasions. Please uphold us in our new adventure.

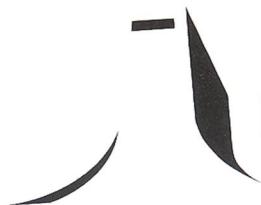

Grace & Peace – Always!

Coming Soon!

This weekend (Friday – Monday) Todd and our Youth to Mid Winter Retreat at La Foret.

Sunday, February 26, we will formally recognize our 2017 Church Officers and those new to our Elder and Diaconate groups. FCC has a pretty high percentage of its members involved in service and shepherding. It would be hard to find a person who hasn't served in the past or isn't currently involved in a ministry. That's ownership. This will be a specific opportunity to honor these servants and ask the Lord's Blessing upon them.

Ash Wednesday service, March 1. The Worship Ministry Team has been organizing this service that begins this year's season of Lent. See the March church newsletter for its information and the season of Lenten devotions that will take place each Wednesday night during Lent.
